Elizabeth Ricci has worked in the area of immigration law since 1989 and holds a "10.0 'superb'" rating by Avvo. She has been an expert witness in litigation regarding immigrant employment issues and has co-counseled with personal injury attorneys representing immigrant plaintiffs.

Attorney Ricci received her Bachelor of Science in International Business from Barry University and her Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University where she studied immigration law under renowned immigration expert and author, Ira Kurzban and argued in Washington, D.C. for the Moot Court Honor Society. Attorney Ricci was an Adjunct Instructor in Legal Studies at Barry University where she taught immigration, among other subjects.

Ms. Ricci received the 2015 Second Judicial Circuit Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Award for outstanding contributions for the good of the public. Ms. Ricci was honored in November, 2014 by the National Association of Professional women for her "outstanding leadership, commitment within [her] profession and employment at Rambana & Ricci, PLLC. On August 23, 2014, she was honored for her "tremendous contributions to the community" by the Captial City Democratic Women's Club.

What Clients Are Saying

"One of the best! Very experienced immigration attorneys and I would truly recommend this firm to anyone I know. Their hard work and dedication to cases are hardly found anywhere else. They have a true passion for immigration."

"Have known the immigration lawyers for about 10 years while working at the US Immigration Courts, Elizabeth Ricci is definitely one of the best. She has the sixth sense of knowing when someone is in trouble and needs a help, and I happened to be that someone... when my late husband asked me to take care of my citizenship on his last days at the hospital... and she called to offer her help! Few days later I got a letter from the INS said that they got my documents. My husband died peacefully knowing that Elizabeth was helping me. When my friends asked me about an Immigration Lawyer, I don't have a better lawyer to refer to than Elizabeth."

"Mrs. Ricci and Mr. Rambana helped me with my National Interest Waiver case, a claim that did not require a sponsor. These two attorneys did an excellent job. My case was approved in less than one year. I am now a Permanent Resident and living happily here in the U.S. with my wife and child. Once again thank you for helping me achieve the American Dream!"
